

STATE RESOURCES

National & Local Programs

State Assistive Technology Programs

Agencies & departments responsible for services with IDD

State Protection & Advocacy Orgs

Responsible for protecting the legal rights of individuals within their state

State Departments of Education

Responsible for overseeing the state's education and enforcing federal and state education laws

AUDCS | Non-Degree

The Association of University Centers on Disabilities has centers in each state. Many states also have non-degree programs at universities for those with IDD.